

NOT THE JENNINGSSES

THIS IS THE LATEST ON THE ROCK ISLAND ROBBERY.

RINK HALE CAPTURED

REPUTED TO BE A BAD MAN OF
TWENTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE.

SHERIFF MORRISON TAKES HIM IN

ASSISTED BY DEPUTIES MORRISON
AND PATTERSON

After a Hot Fight at Close Range—Charged
With the Rock Island Hold-Up—
Jailed at Cloud Chief

El Reno, O. T., Dec. 22.—(Special.)—The Eagle some time ago made mention that Al Jennings was not implicated in the Rock Island train robbery, and now it is a certain fact that he was not.

While Deputy United States marshals were searching the country for the so-called Jennings gang, Sheriff Neal Morrison, of Washita county, and Sheriff J. R. Nicholson, of Custer county, were quietly searching for the man who, they thought, did the act of robbing the train. Yesterday your correspondent received the following news, which can be verified by referring to any responsible man in Cloud Chief, this territory:

Rink Hale, one of the worst if not the most noted outlaws that has committed depredations in Oklahoma and Indian Territories for over twenty years, was captured by Sheriff D. N. Morrison and Deputies J. W. Morrison and W. Patterson last Tuesday near Okadale, O. T., after a terrible resistance, in which Hale shot at Sheriff Morrison's head twice at close range. The brave sheriff closed in on the desperado and with the assistance of his deputies, snatched and landed Hale in jail at Cloud Chief. The charges against Hale are murder, train robbery and horse stealing. It is said that there will be no lack of evidence against Hale, when he is brought up for trial. It is stated now for a certain fact that the Hale gang, instead of the Jennings boys, held up the Rock Island train between Minco and Chickasha some time ago.

The people feel proud of Sheriff Morrison and his splendid record in breaking up outlaw gangs in that country. Such efforts as Sheriff Morrison and J. R. Nicholson are indispensable in newly settled countries, and the law-abiding citizen should stand by them in their efforts to rid the country of outlaws.

Sheriff Nicholson took no part in this important capture, but arrived shortly after Hale was overpowered and would have been on the ground but for information he received that the outlaw would take a different road.

The committee appointed at the board of trade meeting, held two weeks ago, will have a fine report to make tomorrow (Thursday) night. El Reno has a board of trade and the citizens of the city will assist it in building up the town. Everybody is cordially invited to attend the meeting tomorrow evening.

The Eagle is receiving unstinted and well merited praise for the manner in which it placed the great cotton parade of last Monday before its readers. It was the only metropolitan paper that has a board of trade and the citizens of the city will assist it in building up the town. Everybody is cordially invited to attend the meeting tomorrow evening.

FOR STATEHOOD DELEGATES

Kingfisher County Republicans Will Hold a Convention January 8

Kingfisher, O. T., Dec. 22.—(Special.)—Chairman Dan W. Jones, of the Republican county central committee of Kingfisher county, has just issued a call for a county delegate convention of the Republicans of Kingfisher county, to be held in this city on Saturday, January 8, 1898, to elect fourteen delegates to attend the statehood convention which also meets here on January 13, 1898.

The following is the apportionment of delegates to the townships and towns of this county: Altamir, 3; Cimarron, 6; Cooper, 3; Center, 3; Excelsior, 6; Grant, 3; Hennessey township, 3; Kingfisher township, 6; Linn, 4; Omega, 2; Park, 3; Reserve, 3; Sherman, 5; Banner, 4; Columbia, 4; Coronado, 3; Downs, 2; Forest, 3; Hennessy city, 6; Harrison, 2; Lacey, 7; Lehigh, 3; Otter, 4; River, 4; Skelton, 2; Union, 4.

"Kingfisher City: First ward 3, Second ward 4, Third ward 5, Fourth ward 4."

"The primaries for the election of these delegates will be held, under the supervision of local committees, at the usual voting places on Tuesday, January 4, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 o'clock p. m."

AT THE ORATORICAL CONTEST

Cleveland County Will Be Represented by Miss Sallie Goode

Norman, O. T., Dec. 22.—(Special.)—The oratorical contest to select a representative of Cleveland county in the territorial oratorical contest to be held in El Reno on December 31, was held at the university chapel on Saturday night.

GAGE TO GOMPERS

ADDRESSES A LETTER REGARDING
THE GOLD STANDARD.

Wherein There is Not so Much Particularity
Relating to the Gold Standard, But Rather, Mr. Gage, While Not Claiming to Know All About Finance, Does
Claim, At Least Forthrightly and With
Due Consideration For Opposing Opinions,
That Mr. Gompers Knows Nothing
at All About It

Washington, Dec. 22.—Secretary Gage has written the following letter to President Gompers of the Federation of Labor.

SIX CHEROKEE INDIANS

Fled in Vain For Delay in the Impending
Judicial Change

Washington, Dec. 22.—A delegation of six Cherokee Indians is in the city for the purpose of securing a delay in the date at which federal judicial jurisdiction is to be extended over the Indian Territory, which, under the act of congress, becomes effective January 1. Secretary Bliss told the delegation that although the government had the best interests of the Indians at heart, yet in the present case it could not accede to their wishes. Congress had adjourned for the holidays, and it was impossible to do anything in the line indicated without legislative sanction.

GRAND MASQUERADE BALL

Given in Wonderful Style by the Norman
Dancing Club

Norman, O. T., Dec. 22.—(Special.)—A grand masquerade ball was given in the Red Men's hall in this city tonight by the Norman Dancing Club. Fifty couples were present, a number being from Parcell, Paul's Valley, Moore and Oklahoma City. Kings, queens, and clowns, jostled each other, and some of the costumes were very handsome. A splendid banquet was served at the Hotel Argosy at 12 o'clock.

GOT HIS TROUSERS BACK

"Butch" Harris Receives a Call From the
Thief in the Night

Norman, O. T., Dec. 22.—(Special.)—King Harris, A. O. McGill's butcher, had his watch and $18 stolen from him by a sneak thief on Monday night. He had the money in a sack which he put in his pants pocket when he closed up Monday night and went to his room. He forgot to lock his bedroom door, and during the night the thief entered, took his watch from his vest pocket and carried away the trousers, which Harris found the next morning at the bottom of the stairs, minus the money. There is no clue to the thief.

EITHER DEATH OR ACQUITTAL

Jury, Now Out on the Cook Anderson
Case, an Instruction

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 22.—The trial of John Anderson, cook of the schooner Olive Pecker, for the murder of Mate Saunders, was concluded today, and the case went to the jury at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. The court has adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The general impression is that a verdict will be reached in a comparatively short time and that it will be guilty as charged in the indictment. Under the ruling of the court, the jury must find Anderson guilty as charged in the indictment, or not guilty. There can be no verdict of manslaughter.

The prisoner was dramatic to the last. Just before the district attorney concluded his closing argument, telling the jury that if Anderson had been innocent he would have adopted another course, the accused man began to hiss, saying: "I am innocent, Mr. White," and had to be forcibly pulled back into his chair by the court bailiff.

The morning was consumed in the hearing of arguments on instructions, the district attorney contending that there was no evidence whatever to justify the plea of self-defense, before the elements of manslaughter must be eliminated from the case.

The defense claimed that the court in charge should instruct the jury to consider the hypothesis of manslaughter as well as murder.

FOUR BURGULARS OUT OF FIVE.

Captured by a Connecticut Yankee and Jailed

Camden, Conn., Dec. 22.—Four burglars of a gang of five were captured by Martin Rood in Jackson and Eggleston's store here early this morning. Rood, who sleeps in the store, was awakened by the movements of the men, and by prompt use of his revolver, wounded two of the burglars and marched four of them, including one of those whom he had shot into a room and locked the door. The fifth member of the gang escaped. Rood fired his revolver until reinforcements came and his prisoners were conducted to the lock-up. The wounded men are Percy St. Clair, shot in the back, and J. C. Davis, shot in the right thigh.

Madrid, Dec. 22.—The chamber will be dissolved on January 3, next, and the elections for the new house will be held on February 30. The date for re-assembling is April 30.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 22.—John E. Madden has purchased of Thomas C. McDevitt the bay colt David Garrick, for $100. David Garrick is by Hanover, dam by Nottingham, by Lexington. Besides the money consideration, McDevitt is to have a percentage of the colt's winnings should he be lucky enough to get money in the Matron and Futurity stakes, in both of which events he is entered.

Vienna, Dec. 22.—The Deutsche Zeitung says: "The United States, which from its geographical position, has a greater interest in the opening up of China than all European powers together, cannot possibly consent to its partition or to a division into spheres of influence without having a voice in the matter. It would be a great mistake to underestimate the strength of the United States; and a partition of China would be impossible without America's approval and participation."

NOT BY CALLING THEM CRAZY

Can Western Silver Men Be Convinced,
Says Wolcott of Colorado

New York, Dec. 22.—Senator Wolcott of Colorado, in an address tonight at the festival of the New England society, began with a humorous reference to the political resignation with which the exiles from New England bore their banishment; then spoke of an alleged desire of the San Francisco government to acquire the state of Maine and portions of New England, and Vermont in exchange for territory in western Canada. Serious thought on the subject of a possible cession of a part of New England, Mr. Wolcott said, brought a realization of what it would mean to this people to face the possibility of change, by the shadow of a hair the contour of these states or the sacrifice of a chip of its native granite, however barren."

He continued: "Not only does this sentiment pervade the land, but we seem at times to be developing an inclination to invite some other country to offer us in order that we may demonstrate our united aggressiveness."

In certain directions our domestic differences are crystallizing and not disintegrating. For more than a generation we have waited for the day when parties would divide solely on national questions, and when the old sectional issues growing out of the civil war would be almost entirely buried. The time came. The parties met on a broad economic question, and so, we emerge from the contest threatened with another bitter sectional division.
